Chief Financial Officer of Kentucky Venues Announced

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Jan. 4, 2019) —Tony Schreck was named the new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Kentucky Venues today. Kentucky Venues operates the Kentucky Exposition Center (KEC) and the Kentucky International Convention Center (KICC) in Louisville.

Schreck most recently served as Accounting Director at Kentucky Venues and has been with the organization since late 2017. Prior to working at Kentucky Venues, he worked for 12 years at Marsh & McLennan Companies as an Accounting Manager and Senior Financial Analyst. In addition to his time there, he has another eight years' experience in various Accounting and Finance roles with Fortune 500 companies.

"Schreck's experience and expertise in the financial industry will be a tremendous asset to our organization as we seek to be responsible stewards of public assets," said David S. Beck, President and CEO of Kentucky Venues.

As CFO, Schreck will oversee the finances at KEC and KICC. He and his wife live in Louisville with their three children.
